

It is an absolute travesty that any ammendment to the do not call list is even being considered. This is one act of legislation that has actually worked, and the thought of big business corrupting it is a shame. Please consider the individual over professional lobbyist for once.